

Further Mathematics Support Programme Central Coordinator: Person Specification

Essential

- A first degree in Mathematics, or a strongly mathematics-based subject such as physics or engineering.
- A successful track record of teaching mathematics to at least A level Further Mathematics standard or to university undergraduates
- Excellent communication skills.
- The ability to inspire others.
- Strong IT skills.
- Strong presentation skills.
- A passionate commitment to improving mathematics education at pre-university level.
- High levels of self-motivation and enthusiasm.

Desirable

- Experience of working in Higher Education.
- Experience of providing careers advice and guidance.
- Experience of developing mathematics teaching and learning resources.
- Experience of leadership and management in an educational context.