

Maths Hub and MEI collaboration case study: London Central & NW Maths Hub

Who we are: We are the London Central and NW Hub led by The St Marylebone CE School

What is happening? We are hosting a cohort of the MEI-certificated Teaching Advanced Mathematics \(TAM\) course.

Benefits to participating teachers	Benefits to our lead school and Hub
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - an opportunity to collaborate and learn alongside other teachers - an opportunity for subject knowledge development combined with pedagogical reflection - access to high quality sustained PD from NCETM CPD standard holders - extensive support through 6 face-to-face study days, regular online sessions, discussion forums and textbooks - access for 3 years to a bank of online resources written specifically for course participants - affordable sustained PD through MEI's not-for-profit pricing - ongoing relationship with their Hub 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - increased profile in hosting a nationally recognised course - hosting a course that meets a clear local need - strengthened Hub reputation as a leading provider of high quality PD - improved links within the Hub of schools with post-16 provision - opportunity to establish relationships with teachers whom we can continue to support beyond the end of the course - excellent PD for participating teachers from the host school

What next?

If you are interested in finding out more about hosting similar professional development courses at your Hub please contact MEI's Programme Leader for Teacher Support, Bernard Murphy

bernard.murphy@mei.org.uk